n 1977, the Disability Alliance BC (formerly BC Coalition of People with Disabilities) identified the need for a cross-disability provincial publication.

We envisioned a forum that would educate the public about disability, build community and reduce the stigma and misunderstanding held by many about living with a disability.

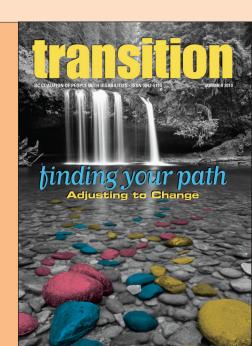

For over 35 years, Transition magazine, has provided this forum. Each edition takes an in-depth look at an issue important to the disability community, such as financial literacy, technology, recreation and community engagement.

Transition is:

- An opportunity to share information with our growing network which includes community organizations, the general public, libraries, businesses and government.
- A way to invest not only in your business, but in the dignity and independence of people who live with a disability.
- A respected, established voice of people with disabilities in BC.
- A forum for people with disabilities' opinions, stories and creative talent.

Circulation

- Transition is a quarterly publication with a circulation of almost 5,000 copies.
- We distribute Transition to public libraries, community centres, businesses, community organizations, rehabilitation and health centres, health care professionals, individuals and policy makers. Transition is also circulated at national, provincial and local conferences and workshops.
- Transition is available in print and PDF. Each edition is promoted through Facebook, Twitter and our e-newsletter, Our Voice, (2,700+ subscribers).
